

Ex Libris Membership and Donation Information

The Ex Libris Association (ELA) membership is open to all interested parties but is primarily drawn from the ranks of retired librarians, library technicians, archivists, records managers, information technologists, and those who have worked in libraries, archives, and museums. If you have worked as an information professional, you can benefit from joining ELA. The Association is also a registered charitable and non-profit organization that welcomes financial support for its activities.

How to Join ELA

Membership costs $35 per year and you will receive a charitable receipt. You can print and complete our MEMBERSHIP BROCHURE AND FORM, then return it with a cheque to our mailing address below, use an email e-transfer, OR pay online at our site with the registered charity, CanadaHelps which provides an online charitable receipt OR

If you are a retired member of the Ontario Library Association, membership in both is only $50 per year through the OLA. You can combine the benefits of two associations by joining at OLA's website and choosing the option tab "Ex Libris + OLA Membership" at the Ontario Library Association website. You can also choose to join ELA separately at the same site.

Our address is: Ex Libris Association, c/o Faculty of Information, University of Toronto, 140 St. George Street, Toronto, ON M5S 3G6.

Donate to ELA

ELA is a charitable, non-profit organization that welcomes financial support so we may carry out our programs, advocacy, and meet our needs. You may give a general donation or designate your contribution for a specific purpose. An easy way to contribute is to pay online on our designated ELA page with the registered charity CanadaHelps which provides an online charitable receipt via email or print.

Alternatively, for an e-transfer payment, please copy our email: bob at exlibris to complete a donation transaction and receive your tax-deductible receipt.
